Learning vi commands(II)

- Control command in vi Editor:
  These commands are used for scrolling on the screen.
    - CTRL+d
      Moves the screen down by half a page
    - CTRL+f
      Moves the screen down by a full page
    - CTRL+u
      Moves the screen up by half a page
    - CTRL+b
      Moves the screen up by a full page
    - CTRL+e
      Moves the screen up by one line
    - CTRL+y
      Moves the screen down by one line
    - CTRL+l
      Redraw the screen

- Inserting and replacing text in Vi editor:
  To edit the file we must be in insert mode
    - i inserts text before current cursor location.

    - a
      Insert text after current cursor location.
    - A
      Insert text at the end of the current line.
    - o
      creates a new line for the text entry below cursor location and switches to insert mode.

- s
  Replaces single character under the cursor with any of the character and switches to insert mode.
- R
  Overwrites text from the cursor to the right , without switching to insert mode.